Dear Dennis,

On behalf of the International Association of Plastics Distribution, thank you for your recent participation as the emcee during the general session of the 52nd IAPD Annual Convention held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Your performance was marvelous! You portrayed the perfect blend of professionalism, structure and humor, which reached across the generational divide (pleasing the broad spectrum of age ranges within our audience). Additionally, your humor was well accepted by both our North American and International members. Our general session has never been so well-timed and structured (we have been known to put our audience to sleep in the past!)

IAPD is pleased that you have agreed to emcee our next annual convention in October 2009.

Please let this letter serve as IAPD's official letter of recommendation should you want to share our contact information with potential clients. Your clients may personally contact me at 913.345.1005 or savery@iapd.org.

Again, thank you for a fabulous performance for IAPD. We look forward to working with you again in the future.

Sincerely,

Susan E. Avery, CAE
Executive Director
